Greatest Convention Demonstration in History.

Eloquent Oklahoma Senator Makes Mention of the Name That Breaks the Democratic Hosts Into a Pandemonium That Lasts One Hour and Twenty-Seven Minutes.

Denver, Colo., July 8.—Bryan, the name which fires the faith, the hope and the aspirations of these assembled hosts of democracy, was for the first time during the convention uttered today. There followed such a scene as has probably never been witnessed in this country, perhaps not in the world. For an hour and twenty-seven minutes the greater part of 12,000 people shouted in a paroxysm of joy. On the part of the vast majority it was a spontaneous outburst of feeling.

These delegates who have come here to nominate Bryan, who see in him democracy's only hope, and, indeed, the country's only chance of salvation, gave unrestrained vent to their emotions. It was a spontaneous outpouring of their feelings. And, perhaps, too, they were moved somewhat by a desire to show the futility of opposition.

It was as if the avalanche had quivered to give warning to those who stand below. The occasion was slight; these men had little provocation to let go of their feelings as they did since they were prompted by no climactic oratory. Senator Gore, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, was the man to whom fell the privilege of first uttering the magic name.

Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee was first invited. He had escaped, divining that he would be called on. Then Senator Gore was brought to the stand by Chairman Bell. There was vast curiosity to see and hear him. He had been well advertised; his affliction, if nothing more, makes him famous. The convention hall, which previously was in a buzz which made no word audible at once became still.

Senator Gore's first sentence was a reference to the announcement which had been made a few moments previously by Chairman Bell that the Michigan delegation had lost its Bible and was worried about it.

Refers to Michigan Bible.

"I would like first to announce that the Michigan Bible will be found in the den of the Tammany Tiger," he said, whereupon a gale of laughter swept the hall. "I saw it on exhibition there as a curiosity," he added.

"Now, my friends," he continued, "Oklahoma rejoices to make her debut to have her coming out, under circumstances so auspicious. (Applause.) Oklahoma rejoices in the privilege of putting on long dresses and of eating at the first table with the grown folks. (Applause.) Oklahoma, confidentially would rather be on the inside looking out than on the outside looking in. (Laughter.)

"Now, if there is anybody here that doesn't know anything or everything, ask Oklahoma and she will tell you. (Laughter.) Oklahoma brings greetings and good cheer to her older sisters in this splendid Union.

Oklahoma Democratic.

"I come to you, my fellow democrats, not only from the newest state, but I come from the most democratic state in this mighty union. (Wild cheering.) I come to you from a state where democracy is a fact and not a figure of speech. I come to you from a state where the principles of Jeffersonian democracy have been written into the fundamental law of the land. (Applause.)

"It is true that the president of the United States said that his opinion of our constitution was not fit for publication. That, however, is true of a great many of the opinions of the president of this country. (Cheers.) My fellow democrats, the great secretary of war waged war against our constitution. He came to Oklahoma and told us to do what liberty-loving free-men what the Anglo-Saxon race has never done; reject the opportunity for self-government when that opportunity was presented. The greatest living apostle of human liberty came down to Oklahoma and advised us to avail ourselves of the opportunity to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity. (Cheers.)

Bryan's Name Called.

"And with a majority of more than 100,000 Oklahoma rejected the advice of Taft and accepted the advice of Bryan." It was at this point that the great demonstration began. Senator Gore listened to it intently for more than five minutes without changing his position. Then, as if satisfied that it would be of long duration, he sat down on the railing and calmly waited for the turbulence to subside. The demonstration began at 1:19 o'clock. At 2:40 o'clock Chairman Bell, assisted by a score of others, began their efforts to restore order. These efforts were successful seven minutes later, and then Senator Gore arose again and said: "Go Thon and Do Likewise."

"My countrymen, to the other and the older states in this great, self-governing republic, Oklahoma has but this to say: 'Go thou and do likewise.' (Cheers.) Then he passed from the platform after having caused one of the greatest demonstrations in the history of political conventions in America.

Arguments for a Great Navy.

Arguments in favor of a great navy for the protection of the Pacific against Japanese aggression, as well as for the insurance of peace on the Atlantic seaboard, have made a slight impression on the convention. The navy planks introduced by Lewis Nixon of New York and Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, both naval experts, are being considered by the committee on resolutions. The delegations from the Pacific Slope demand a plank for a great naval increase.

HON. E. S. RATLIFF

He Relies for Re-Election
Upon his Record and
Democratic Usage,
Which are Ample
and Ought Win.

To the Voters of Seminole and Pontotoc Counties:

Having been solicited by my friends in several different portions of this legislative district to stand for re-election to the office of Floterial Representative in the legislature, I hereby announce my candidacy, based upon the following principles, as well as others, which I shall state to the people from time to time in the necessarily short campaign, which can be made before the primary election on Aug. 4th.

1st. My record as a member of the First Oklahoma Legislature as shown by the House Journal of that body.

2nd. The fact that I have as yet not served a term in the office sought.

3rd. If I had served a full term of two years in this office, there is an unwritten law of democracy that a man should be allowed a second term, provided his record is not bad.

As stated above upon these fundamental propositions, and others to be announced from time to time, I am standing for re-election at the hands of the people of Seminole and Pontotoc counties. As to the first proposition, I desire to say that the Journal of the First Oklahoma Legislature is open for the inspection of the people of Oklahoma, and contains the record, whether good or bad, of every member of that body upon each question acted upon by it. The vote and action of each individual in any official capacity can thus be ascertained with official certainty. In every vote cast by me I endeavored to ascertain, as nearly as practicable that which would be for the best interest of the state at large, and my constituency in particular, and where I could do so, endeavored to ascertain the will of those represented by me. If there was ever a legislature in which the interest of the great laboring masses of the country were at heart, in my humble opinion that body is the first legislature of Oklahoma. This is particularly true in the case of the tillers of the soil. I believe with Daniel Webster that "When tillage begins the other arts follow, and that the farmers are therefore the founders of human civilization," and in accordance with this belief, I cast my vote upon questions affecting their interests. My record will show that I stood for the most economical administration of state affairs, reasonable salaries for those already created, and the creation of just as few additional offices as possible, and the making of those created, elective wherever possible. I do not believe in the appointive system, state or federal. The second proposition needs no discussion. The constitution fixes the term at two years, and I have not yet served one.

Proposition number three is as old as time itself, and the principle applies in every walk of life. It is the unwritten law of democracy, and is practiced by all political parties. It is especially applicable to the office of Floterial Representative for the following reasons, viz: 1st. The district covers two counties, which makes the campaign more difficult and more expensive. 2nd. The office at an ordinary term will only pay the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars per term of two years. 3rd. The reasonable cost of a campaign over the two counties will amount to about two hundred and fifty dollars. So far these reasons if for no other the democratic doctrine of succession should apply, allowing the representative to succeed himself one term, if his work is satisfactory, without the necessity of a hard and expensive campaign.

Basing my claim upon these and other considerations, and taking this method of addressing the voters, for the reason that it may be impossible for me to see every one, I solicit your support for re-election.

E. S. RATLIFF.

It May be That Cement Plant Can Begin Partial Operation Again at Once.

First while city editor of the News, Councilman Sherwood Hill has been closely engaged looking after the interests of the city at the dam site this week. Sherwood was ready to go home and to bed today when the dam had been finished, since he had been on duty day and night so long. Considering the character of the injury to the dam, the city is to be congratulated that the labor and material involved in the repair and reconstruction work will likely not reach above one thousand dollars.

Since the mayor and his helping councilmen are so desirous of seeing the Cement Plant commence to grind again, it has been agreed to move the old city pump to the old oil mill well that all the water available there might be secured, for it is thought by the Cement Company that the water in the reservoir and Oil Mill well together will afford enough to supply one of the big boilers at the plant; if so, it is said that Mr. Whitaker can return at least fifty men to work at once.

Mayor Harrison, Sherwood Hill, Charlie Evans and other councilmen are rendering the city incalculable service though their efforts to handle properly and quickly the water problem.

RESOLUTION.

In Council Chambers of the City of Ada, Oklahoma.

Whereas, the first legislature of the State of Oklahoma has seen fit and wise to enact and pass into a law "House Bill No. 231," being "An Act to provide for the improvement of streets and other public places within cities of the First-class, by grading, paving, macadamizing, curbing, guttering and draining the same and declaring an emergency," and

Whereas, the city of Ada, Okla., has grown from a small country village to a city of the First-class under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, duly declared to be such by the Governor thereof; and

Whereas, the increased traffic on and over the public thoroughfares of the said city makes it imperative that more efficient and substantial streets and highways be built in the said city at once.

Therefore, be it resolved by the mayor and the councilmen of said city, in regular session assembled, that an urgent necessity for the paving, guttering, grading and curbing of Main street of said city, from the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad to the east side of the right of way of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, Townsend avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street, on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north Broadway avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north and Rennie avenue of said city, from Main street to the middle of the alley between Main and 12th streets, be and is hereby declared to exist; and resolved further, that the said mayor and councilmen will proceed to grade, pave, gutter and curb the said streets and avenues between the points afore said with vitrified brick or asphaltum after fifteen days from the last day of the publication of this notice.

Passed and approved, this 6th day of July, A. D., 1908.

GEO. A. HARRISON, Mayor.

Fats and Leans Struggle for Victory in New Park.

The Heavy Weights of Mr. Walsh and the Bean Poles of T. O. Cullins met at the park Tuesday afternoon to see who could play the best game of ball. Each side played a rotten ball. Every man on both sides played rotten ball, even the umpire rendered rotten decisions, so say the quarrelsome fats.

The slims were up first but failed to score. The fats came to the bench and on account of poor field work of the leans, ran in a few scores. Rosenfield's pitching was rank at the beginning of the game and he was batted all over the park. Bob Roland, who is entirely too lean to be fat, was in the box for Walsh's "Heavy Weights," and he made his team blush on account of his awful pitching. He sent his balls bouncing from the half way mark between box and plate and played "antny over" over the grand stand. Walsh, Reed and Mason each accidentally caught a ball, but generally speaking, their playing was dreadful. "A beaut" was knocked right into Weaver's hands but he dropped it; finally, however, he and Eddleman together managed to get a fly near third. Dr. LeFevre, the sycamore of the Great Lakes, was conspicuous for his awkward playing; he could not bat worth a cent. When Roland in the box got so bad that he endangered the lives of the rooters on the bleachers, Doc Couch was borrowed from the leans and like his predecessor, failed to make good. Rosenfield was deposed and Meaders took his place. The most commendable thing he did was to knock Ben Mason's belt buckle off and kept the other fats scared half to death on account of his wild-eyed pitching. Bud Gregg exposed his ignorance of baseball in right field; if he ever

Demonstration Stirs Bryan.

"Fairview," Lincoln, Neb., July 8.—The democrats have been very good to me and I can find no words to express my deep appreciation of the confidence and good will which the demonstration indicates. It was with these words that William J. Bryan this afternoon speaking to a number of newspaper men acknowledged the remarkable demonstration given him by delegates to the democratic national convention.

That Mr. Bryan was deeply affected by the outburst was apparent in the gravity which he uttered the sentiment quoted. One hour and 26 minutes in crisp telegrams received at Fairview, and the thrill of it showed in flashes in the eyes of the man to whom it was paid.

That its tremendous force and remarkable duration had stirred the three-time candidate is every fibre was apparent as he spoke.

The platform will not be ready until today. The subcommittee of seventeen has been split up into subcommittees of three to consider labor, tariff, currency, corporation and other planks.

Judge Alton B. Parker of New York has repudiated the Tammany platform in the committee, and is not supporting the anti-injunction plank prepared by the committee of the New York delegation. He and George Fred Williams, who, with one other, is drafting the labor plank, have had radical differences.

When the convention met at 8 o'clock on the report of the credentials committee there was no report. The stenographer had strangely disappeared, notes and all. This caused a long delay.

Greatest Convention Demonstration in History.

Eloquent Oklahoma Senator Makes Mention of the Name That Breaks the Democratic Hosts Into a Pandemonium That Lasts One Hour and Twenty-Seven Minutes.

Denver, Colo., July 8.—Bryan, the name which fires the faith, the hope and the aspirations of these assembled hosts of democracy, was for the first time during the convention uttered today. There followed such a scene as has probably never been witnessed in this country, perhaps not in the world. For an hour and twenty-seven minutes the greater part of 12,000 people shouted in a paroxysm of joy. On the part of the vast majority it was a spontaneous outburst of feeling.

These delegates who have come here to nominate Bryan, who see in him democracy's only hope, and, indeed, the country's only chance of salvation, gave unrestrained vent to their emotions. It was a spontaneous outpouring of their feelings. And, perhaps, too, they were moved somewhat by a desire to show the futility of opposition.

It was as if the avalanche had quivered to give warning to those who stand below. The occasion was slight; these men had little provocation to let go of their feelings as they did since they were prompted by no climactic oratory. Senator Gore, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, was the man to whom fell the privilege of first uttering the magic name.

Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee was first invited. He had escaped, divining that he would be called on. Then Senator Gore was brought to the stand by Chairman Bell. There was vast curiosity to see and hear him. He had been well advertised; his affliction, if nothing more, makes him famous. The convention hall, which previously was in a buzz which made no word audible at once became still.

Senator Gore's first sentence was a reference to the announcement which had been made a few moments previously by Chairman Bell that the Michigan delegation had lost its Bible and was worried about it.

Refers to Michigan Bible.

"I would like first to announce that the Michigan Bible will be found in the den of the Tammany Tiger," he said, whereupon a gale of laughter swept the hall. "I saw it on exhibition there as a curiosity," he added.

"Now, my friends," he continued, "Oklahoma rejoices to make her debut to have her coming out, under circumstances so auspicious. (Applause.) Oklahoma rejoices in the privilege of putting on long dresses and of eating at the first table with the grown folks. (Applause.) Oklahoma, confidentially would rather be on the inside looking out than on the outside looking in. (Laughter.)

"Now, if there is anybody here that doesn't know anything or everything," ask Oklahoma and she will tell you. (Laughter.) Oklahoma brings greetings and good cheer to her older sisters in this splendid Union;

Oklahoma Democratic.

"I come to you, my fellow democrats, not only from the newest state, but I come from the most democratic state in this mighty union. (Wild cheering.) I come to you from a state where democracy is a fact and not a figure of speech. I come to you from a state where the principles of Jeffersonian democracy have been written into the fundamental law of the land. (Applause.)

"It is true that the president of the United States said that his opinion of our constitution was not fit for publication. That, however, is true of a great many of the opinions of the president of this country. (Cheers.) My fellow democrats, the great secretary of war waged war against our constitution. He came to Oklahoma and told us to do what liberty-loving free-men what the Anglo-Saxon race has never done; reject the opportunity for self-government when that opportunity was presented. The greatest living apostle of human liberty came down to Oklahoma and advised us to avail ourselves of the opportunity to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity. (Cheers.)

Bryan's Name Called.

"And with a majority of more than 100,000 Oklahoma rejected the advice of Taft and accepted the advice of Bryan." It was at this point that the great demonstration began. Senator Gore listened to it intently for more than five minutes without changing his position. Then, as if satisfied that it would be of long duration, he sat down on the railing and calmly waited for the turbulence to subside. The demonstration began at 1:19 o'clock. At 2:10 o'clock Chairman Bell, assisted by a score of others, began their efforts to restore order. These efforts were successful seven minutes later, and then Senator Gore arose again and said "Go Thon and Do Likewise."

"My countrymen, in the other and the older states in this great, self-governing republic, Oklahoma has but this to say: 'Go thou and do likewise.' (Cheers.) Then he passed from the platform after having caused one of the greatest demonstrations in the history of political conventions in America.

Arguments for a Great Navy.

Arguments in favor of a great navy for the protection of the Pacific against Japanese aggression, as well as for the insurance of peace on the Atlantic seaboard, have made a slight impression on the convention. The navy planks introduced by Lewis Nixon of New York and Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, both naval experts, are being considered by the committee on resolutions. The delegations from the Pacific Slope demand a plank for a great naval increase.

The committee on credentials vot-

HON. E. S. RATLIFF

He Relies for Re-Election
Upon his Record and
Democratic Usage,
Which are Ample
and Ought Win.

To the Voters of Seminole and Pontotoc Counties:

Having been solicited by my friends in several different portions of this legislative district to stand for re-election to the office of Floterial Representative in the legislature, I hereby announce my candidacy, based upon the following principles, as well as others, which I shall state to the people from time to time in the necessarily short campaign which can be made before the primary election on Aug. 4th.

1st. My record as a member of the First Oklahoma Legislature as shown by the House Journal of that body.

2nd. The fact that I have as yet not served a term in the office sought.

3rd. If I had served a full term of two years in this office, there is an unwritten law of democracy that a man should be allowed a second term, provided his record is not bad.

As stated above upon these fundamental propositions, and others to be announced from time to time, I am standing for re-election at the hands of the people of Seminole and Pontotoc counties. As to the first proposition, I desire to say that the Journal of the First Oklahoma Legislature is open for the inspection of the people of Oklahoma, and contains the record, whether good or bad, of every member of that body upon each question acted upon by it. The vote and action of each individual in any official capacity can thus be ascertained with official certainty. In every vote cast by me I endeavored to ascertain, as nearly as practicable that which would be for the best interest of the state at large, and my constituency in particular, and where I could do so endeavored to ascertain the will of those represented by me. If there was ever a legislature in which the interest of the great laboring masses of the country were at heart, in my humble opinion that body is the first legislature of Oklahoma. This is particularly true in the case of the tillers of the soil I believe with Daniel Webster that "When tillage begins the other arts follow, and that the farmers are therefore the founders of human civilization," and in accordance with this belief, I cast my vote upon questions affecting their interests. My record will show that I stood for the most economical administration of state affairs, reasonable salaries for those already created, and the creation of just as few additional offices as possible, and the making of those created, elective wherever possible. I do not believe in the appointive system, state or federal.

The second proposition needs no discussion. The constitution fixes the term at two years, and I have not yet served one.

Proposition number three is as old as time itself, and the principle applies in every walk of life. It is the unwritten law of democracy, and is practiced by all political parties. It is especially applicable to the office of Floterial Representative for the following reasons, viz: 1st. The district covers two counties, which makes the campaign more difficult and more expensive. 2nd. The office at an ordinary term will only pay the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars per term of two years, 3rd. The reasonable cost of a campaign over the two counties will amount to about two hundred and fifty dollars. So far these reasons if for no other the democratic doctrine of succession should apply, allowing the representative to succeed himself one term, if his work is satisfactory, without the necessity of a hard and expensive campaign.

Basing my claim upon these and other considerations, and taking this method of addressing the voters, for the reason that it may be impossible for me to see every one, I solicit your support for re-election.

material involved in the repair and reconstruction work will likely not reach above one thousand dollars.

Since the mayor and his helping councilmen are so desirous of seeing the Cement Plant commence to grind again, it has been agreed to move the old city pump to the old oil mill well that all the water available there might be secured, for it is thought by the Cement Company that the water in the reservoir and Oil Mill well together will afford enough to supply one of the big boilers at the plant, if so, it is said that Mr. Whitaker can return at least fifty men to work at once.

RESOLUTION.

In Council Chambers of the City of Ada, Oklahoma.

Whereas, the first legislature of the State of Oklahoma has seen fit and wise to enact and pass into a law "House Bill No. 231," being "An Act to provide for the improvement of streets and other public places within cities of the First-class, by grading, paving, macadamizing, curbing, guttering and draining the same and declaring an emergency," and

Whereas, the city of Ada, Okla., has grown from a small country village to a city of the First-class under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, duly declared to be such by the Governor thereof; and

Whereas, the increased traffic on and over the public thoroughfares of the said city makes it imperative that more efficient and substantial streets and highways be built in the said city at once.

Therefore, be it resolved by the mayor and the councilmen of said city, in regular session assembled, that an urgent necessity for the paving, guttering, grading and curbing of Main street of said city, from the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad to the east side of the right of way of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, Townsend avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street, on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north Broadway avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north and Rennie avenue of said city, from Main street to the middle of the alley between Main and 12th streets, be and is hereby declared to exist; and resolved further, that the said mayor and councilmen will proceed to grade, pave, gutter and curb the said streets and avenues between the points afore said with vitrified brick or asphaltum after fifteen days from the last day of the publication of this notice.

Passed and approved, this 6th day of July, A. D., 1908.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen crowding the delicate female organs nearby and something is bound to happen. This is the true cause of many heart-breaking pains, lameness, backache, rheumatism, dizzy spells, tingling, nervousness and other troubles.

When suffering from any of these kidney troubles, the remedy that cures is Dr. Shoop's. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well.

Mrs. J. P. B. residing at 206 West Second Street, Oklahoma City, Okla., says: "I suffered for much from my kidneys failing to perform their functions properly. My back was very lame and at times I was laid up with it for days. I was weighed down with languor and depression and suffered from annoying irregularities of the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and I procured them. They soon relieved the aching and lameness in my back and rendered the secretions normal. I have every confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. I cheerfully give them my endorsement."

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, are the great organs of control and guide in the body. If they are weak, the whole system is weakened. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well. If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Fats and Leans Struggle for Victory in New Park.

The Heavy Weights of Mr. Walsh and the Bean Poles of T. O. Cullins met at the park Tuesday afternoon to see who could play the best game of ball. Each side played a rotten ball. Every man on both sides played rotten ball, even the umpire rendered rotten decisions, so say the quarrelsome fans.

The slims were up first but failed to score. The fats came to the bench and on account of poor field work of the leans, ran in a few scores. Rosenfield's pitching was rank at the beginning of the game and he was batted all over the park. Boh Roland, who is entirely too lean to be fat, was in the box for Walsh's "Heavy Weights," and he made his team blush on account of his awful pitching. He sent his balls bouncing from the half way mark between box and plate and played "antny over" over the grand stand. Walsh, Reed and Mason each accidentally caught a ball, but generally speaking, their playing was dreadful. "A heat" was knocked right into Weaver's hands but he dropped it; finally, however, he and Eddleman together managed to get a fly near third. Dr. LeFevre, the sycamore of the Great Lakes, was conspicuous for his awkward playing; he could not bat worth a cent. When Roland in the box got so bad that he endangered the lives of the rooters on the bleachers, Doc Couch was borrowed from the leans and like his predecessor, failed to make good. Rosenfield was deposited and Meaders took his place. The most commendable thing he did was to knock Ben Mason's belt buckle off and kept the other fans scared half to death on account of his wild-eyed pitching. Bud Gregg exposed his ignorance of baseball in right field; if he ever

Demonstration Stirs Bryan.

"Fairview," Lincoln, Neb., July 8.—The democrats have been very good to me and I can find no words to express my deep appreciation of the confidence and good will which the demonstration indicates. It was with these words that William J. Bryan this afternoon speaking to a number of newspaper men acknowledged the remarkable demonstration given him by delegates to the democratic national convention. That Mr. Bryan was deeply affected by the outburst was apparent in the gravity which he uttered the sentiment quoted. One hour and 26 minutes in crisp telegrams received at Fairview, and the thrill of it showed in flashes in the eyes of the man to whom it was paid. That its tremendous force and remarkable duration had stirred the three-time candidate is every fibre was apparent as he spoke.

Greatest Convention Demonstration in History.

Eloquent Oklahoma Senator Makes Mention of the Name That Breaks the Democratic Hosts Into a Pandemonium That Lasts One Hour and Twenty-Seven Minutes.

Denver, Colo., July 8.—Bryan, the name which fires the faith, the hope and the aspirations of these assembled hosts of democracy, was for the first time during the convention uttered today. There followed such a scene as has probably never been witnessed in this country, perhaps not in the world. For an hour and twenty-seven minutes the greater part of 12,000 people shouted in a paroxysm of joy. On the part of the vast majority it was a spontaneous outburst of feeling.

These delegates who have come here to nominate Bryan, who see in him democracy's only hope, and, indeed, the country's only chance of salvation, gave unrestrained vent to their emotions. It was a spontaneous outpouring of their feelings. And, perhaps, too, they were moved somewhat by a desire to show the futility of opposition.

It was as if the avalanche had quivered to give warning to those who stand below. The occasion was slight; these men had little provocation to let go of their feelings as they did since they were prompted by no climactic oratory. Senator Gore, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, was the man to whom fell the privilege of first uttering the magic name.

Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee was first invited. He had escaped, divining that he would be called on. Then Senator Gore was brought to the stand by Chairman Bell. There was vast curiosity to see and hear him. He had been well advertised; his affliction, if nothing more, makes him famous. The convention hall, which previously was in a buzz which made no word audible at once became still.

Senator Gore's first sentence was a reference to the announcement which had been made a few moments previously by Chairman Bell that the Michigan delegation had lost its Bible and was worried about it.

Refers to Michigan Bible.
"I would like first to announce that the Michigan Bible will be found in the den of the Tammany Tiger," he said, whereupon a gale of laughter swept the hall. "I saw it on exhibition there as a curiosity," he added.

"Now, my friends," he continued, "Oklahoma rejoices to make her debut to have her coming out, under circumstances so auspicious. (Applause.) Oklahoma rejoices in the privilege of putting on long dresses and of eating at the first table with the grown folks. (Applause.) Oklahoma, confidentially would rather be on the inside looking out than on the outside looking in. (Laughter.)

"Now, if there is anybody here that doesn't know anything or everything, ask Oklahoma and she will tell you. (Laughter.) Oklahoma brings greetings and good cheer to her older sisters in this splendid Union.

Oklahoma Democratic.
"I come to you, my fellow democrats, not only from the newest state, but I come from the most democratic state in this mighty union. (Wild cheering.) I come to you from a state where democracy is a fact and not a figure of speech. I come to you from a state where the principles of Jeffersonian democracy have been written into the fundamental law of the land. (Applause.)

"It is true that the president of the United States said that his opinion of our constitution was not fit for publication. That, however, is true of a great many of the opinions of the president of this country. (Cheers.) My fellow democrats, the great secretary of war waged war against our constitution. He came to Oklahoma and told us to do what liberty-loving free-men what the Anglo-Saxon race has never done; reject the opportunity for self-government when that opportunity was presented. The greatest living apostle of human liberty came down to Oklahoma and advised us to avail ourselves of the opportunity to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity. (Cheers.)

Bryan's Name Called.

"And with a majority of more than 100,000 Oklahoma rejected the advice of Taft and accepted the advice of Bryan." It was at this point that the great demonstration began. Senator Gore listened to it intently for more than five minutes without changing his position. Then, as if satisfied that it would be of long duration, he sat down on the railing and calmly waited for the turbulence to subside. The demonstration began at 1:19 o'clock. At 2:10 o'clock Chairman Bell, assisted by a score of others, began their efforts to restore order. These efforts were successful seven minutes later, and then Senator Gore arose again and said "Go Then and Be Likewise."

"My countrymen, to the other and the older states in this great, self-governing republic, Oklahoma has but this to say: 'Go then and do likewise.' (Cheers.) Then he passed from the platform after having caused one of the greatest demonstrations in the history of political conventions in America.

Arguments for a Great Navy.

Arguments in favor of a great navy for the protection of the Pacific against Japanese aggression, as well as for the insurance of peace on the Atlantic seaboard, have made a slight impression on the convention. The navy planks introduced by Lewis Nixon of New York and Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, both naval experts, are being considered by the committee on resolutions. The delegations from the Pacific Slope demand a plank for a great naval increase.

The committee on credentials vot-

HON. E. S. RATLIFF

He Relies for Re-Election
Upon his Record and
Democratic Usage,
Which are Ample
and Ought Win.

To the Voters of Seminole and Pontotoc Counties:

Having been solicited by my friends in several different portions of this legislative district to stand for re-election to the office of Plottorial Representative in the legislature, I hereby announce my candidacy, based upon the following principles, as well as others, which I shall state to the people from time to time in the necessarily short campaign which can be made before the primary election on Aug 4th.

1st. My record as a member of the First Oklahoma Legislature as shown by the House Journal of that body.

2nd. The fact that I have as yet not served a term in the office sought.

3rd. If I had served a full term of two years in this office, there is an unwritten law of democracy that a man should be allowed a second term, provided his record is not bad.

As stated above upon these fundamental propositions, and others to be announced from time to time, I am standing for re-election at the hands of the people of Seminole and Pontotoc counties. As to the first proposition, I desire to say that the Journal of the First Oklahoma Legislature is open for the inspection of the people of Oklahoma, and contains the record, whether good or bad, of every member of that body upon each question acted upon by it. The vote and action of each individual in any official capacity can thus be ascertained with official certainty. In every vote cast by me I endeavored to ascertain, as nearly as practicable that which would be for the best interest of the state at large, and my constituency in particular, and where I could do so endeavored to ascertain the will of those represented by me. If there was ever a legislature in which the interest of the great laboring masses of the country were at heart, in my humble opinion that body is the first legislature of Oklahoma. This is particularly true in the case of the tillers of the soil. I believe with Daniel Webster that "When tillage begins the other arts follow, and that the farmers are therefore the founders of human civilization," and in accordance with this belief, I cast my vote upon questions affecting their interests. My record will show that I stood for the most economical administration of state affairs, reasonable salaries for those already created, and the creation of just as few additional offices as possible, and the making of those created, elective wherever possible. I do not believe in the appointive system, state or federal.

Proposition number three is as old as time itself, and the principle applies in every walk of life. It is the unwritten law of democracy, and is practiced by all political parties. It is especially applicable to the office of Plottorial Representative for the following reasons, viz: 1st. The district covers two counties, which makes the campaign more difficult and more expensive. 2nd. The office at an ordinary term will only pay the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars per term of two years. 3rd. The reasonable cost of a campaign over the two counties will amount to about two hundred and fifty dollars. So far these reasons if for no other the democratic doctrine of succession should apply, allowing the representative to succeed himself one term, if his work is satisfactory, without the necessity of a hard and expensive campaign.

Basing my claim upon these and other considerations, and taking this method of addressing the voters, for the reason that it may be impossible for me to see every one, I solicit your support for re-election.

material involved in the repair and reconstruction work will likely not reach above one thousand dollars.

Since the mayor and his helping councilmen are so desirous of seeing the Cement Plant commence to grind again, it has been agreed to move the old city pump to the old oil mill well that all the water available there might be secured, for it is thought by the Cement Company that the water in the reservoir and Oil Mill well together will afford enough to supply one of the big boilers at the plant, if so, it is said that Mr. Whitaker can return at least fifty men to work at once.

Mayor Harrison, Sherwood Hill, Charlie Evans and other councilmen are rendering the city incalculable service though their efforts to handle properly and quickly the water problem.

RESOLUTION.

In Council Chambers of the City of Ada, Oklahoma.

Whereas, the first legislature of the State of Oklahoma has seen fit and wise to enact and pass into a law "House Bill No. 231," being "An Act to provide for the improvement of streets and other public places within cities of the First-class, by grading, paving, macadamizing, curbing, guttering and draining the same and declaring an emergency," and

Whereas, the city of Ada, Okla., has grown from a small country village to a city of the First-class under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, duly declared to be such by the Governor thereof; and

Whereas, the increased traffic on and over the public thoroughfares of the said city makes it imperative that more efficient and substantial streets and highways be built in the said city at once.

Therefore, be it resolved by the mayor and the councilmen of said city, in regular session assembled, that an urgent necessity for the paving, guttering, grading and curbing of Main street of said city, from the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad to the east side of the right of way of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, Townsend avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street, on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north Broadway avenue of said city, from the middle of 12th street on the south to the west side of the right of way of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the north and Rennie avenue of said city, from Main street to the middle of the alley between Main and 12th streets, be and is hereby declared to exist; and resolved further, that the said mayor and councilmen will proceed to grade, pave, gutter and curb the said streets and avenues between the points afore said with vitrified brick or asphaltum after fifteen days from the last day of the publication of this notice.

Passed and approved, this 6th day of July, A. D. 1908.

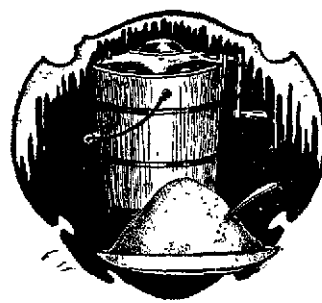

GEO. A. HARRISON, Mayor.

Attest: W.B. JONES, City Clerk.
